LOOKING FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN NEW YORK CITY!

New York City here we come! This year's Corporate Counsel and K&L Gates LLP 14th Annual Career Strategies Conference represents yet another milestone for the organization. Specifically, this year's event sold out in record time (six months ago) and is expected to bring together over 1,200 attendees from around the United States—another record number.

We have another great year of programming and events planned for you in the Big Apple. Our signature Boot Camp and MBA for Lawyers have been approved for 6 Hours of Continuing Legal Education credit and will offer new courses including Corporate Board Boot Camp and Political Candidate Readiness for 2020 Boot Camp. Our New York City excursions will include Broadway Musicals including Hamilton, Kinky Boots, Beautiful: The Carole King Musical, and The Donna Summer Musical; visits to Central Park and museums such as the 9/11 Memorial, MOMO and Madame Tussauds; Apple Picking at Wightman Farms in Morristown, New Jersey; dinner in Harlem at Marcus Samuelsson's Red Rooster; and a slice of Brooklyn Pizza Tour, just to name a few.

Must-hear speakers include Iyanla Vanzant (Iyanla Fix My Life on the OWN Network), Kim Coles (Comedian and Actress, Six Feet Under and Living Single), Diamond Award Honoree, Teresa Wynn Roseborough (General Counsel, The Home Depot), Brad Smith (President and CLO, Microsoft), Karen Roberts (General Counsel, Walmart Inc.), Tim Murphy (General Counsel and Chief Franchise Officer, MasterCard), and Christy Haubegger (Founder, Latina Magazine). Last but not least, our conference will end Saturday, October 13, 2018 with the very first Power and Inspiration Farewell Gospel Breakfast featuring gospel Grammy Award-winning recording artist, Yolanda Adams.

As many of you know, on Friday, June 15, 2018, we held our inaugural Corporate Counsel Men of Color Career | Life Strategies and Power Networking Conference at the Marriott Marquis Convention Center in Washington, D.C. Over 600 men of color attendees from multiple industries (including law, STEM, and finance) gathered in our nation's capital to discuss best practices and strategies for ascending to the top in their careers and in their lives. Empowering topics included career strategies; leadership; financial management; health and wellness; relationships; and entrepreneurship. Prominent speakers included former Pittsburgh Steeler and Super Bowl MVP, Hines Ward, Jr.; Bruce S. Gordon, who serves on the corporate boards of CBS Corporation and Northrop Grumman; Clarence Otis, Jr., former CEO of Darden Restaurants and board member of Verizon; and B. Doyle Mitchell Jr., President and CEO of Industrial Bank. The event was breathtaking and such an inspiration to see so many empowered individuals come together in #Brotherhood.

Thank you to all of our friends, sponsors, and supporters. We could not collectively impact our industry without your support and commitment to diversity and inclusion in the workplace. Please note that sponsor ads and speaker bios will be featured in the Program Book, which will be distributed at the conference in October.

Last year, I missed the New Orleans Conference in preparation of the birth of my son David Patrick Haden II. He is my gift, and I am exuberant to celebrate his 1st birthday on October 10th – the start of this year's 14th Annual conference – yes, CCWC and baby David – my double blessing!

I look forward to seeing you all this fall as we continue to support one another on this journey!

MBA FOR LAWYERS TOPICS:

US GAAP Statements including:

- Balance Sheets
 - Statements of Cash Flow
 - Statements of Shareholder Equity
 - Notes to Financial Statements
- Valuation Theory
- Buy-Sell Disputes
- Mergers & Acquisitions

MBA FOR LAWYERS (Advanced Course Offerings) You went to law school. You may not have gone to business school. Having the capability to understand business and financial concepts is a real advantage. As corporate counsel, your job often includes advising management on legal issues which impact important business decisions. Doing this effectively may require you to understand key financial concepts, such as information presented in financial statements and valuation methods used in strategic decision making. In collaboration with Deloitte, we will host an advanced financial acumen program. The most effective in-house attorneys understand not only the breadth of legal issues facing their companies, they also recognize the importance of how those issues affect and influence strategic business decisions.

The program will begin with a refresher of the basics of accounting concepts, financial statements, and US GAAP accounting principles as well as valuation principles and theory (i.e., what is valuation, who needs it, and common litigation issues). The program will feature an opportunity for you to apply what you have learned in the context of a fictitious corporation—discussing its financial statements as well as equity analysts' reports and valuation principles relevant to the health care and sports/entertainment industries. The program will also feature an opportunity for you to apply what you have learned using a short case study that will be completed in breakout groups.
